ministry

[¹ minəstrē]

NOUN

ministries (plural noun)

1. the work or vocation of a minister of religion.

"he is training for the ministry"

synonyms:

holy orders · the priesthood · the cloth · the church

- the period of tenure of a minister of religion.
- the spiritual work or service of any Christian or a group of Christians, especially evangelism.

"a ministry of Christian healing"

synonyms:

teaching · preaching · evangelism

2. (in certain countries) a government department headed by a minister of state.

"the Ministry of Agriculture"

synonyms:

government department · department · bureau · agency · office

3. (in certain countries) a period of government under one prime minister.

"Gladstone's first ministry was outstanding"

synonyms:

period of office · term (of office) · administration · incumbency

4. rare

the action of ministering to someone.

"the soldiers were no less in need of his ministry"

This week, I reached out to a friend of mine to help me nail down some contacts for a service project that our club is intending to do. When I thanked her, she replied that she enjoys helping others in their ministry.

I have never thought of what we do as MINISTRY. Do you? By definition, we should. We should feel good about the projects that we work to accomplish and the people that we reach by doing them. We should remember to go about these things in great JOY. For we ARE doing God's work. We are MINISTERING to people in need. Sometimes, all they need is to know someone cares. And that is the greatest of our works.

So next time we are not sure about the effects we have on others, remember that we are in Ministry and it is REALLY His work through us!! Go about it Joyfully and without trepidation.

Grace and Peace

ECR Message - Lisa Patterson

Happy Birthday, Pilots! October 16 marks the 98th anniversary of the signing of the Pilot Charter. October 18 has been designated Founder's Day since a formal dinner was held on October 18, 1921 to celebrate the signing of the charter.

The past 98 years have brought much growth, many opportunities for service, and changes that could not be imagined by the original 40 business and professional women. However, the Pilot principles of Friendship and Service have remained unchanged and continue to inspire thousands of Pilots throughout the world.

A short script providing Founder's Day information is available on the Pilot website

(<https://www.pilotinternational.org/member-resource-category/founders-day-resources>). Consider including it in your October club meeting. Also, create opportunities in your community to celebrate Founder's Day. Media public service announcements, proclamations, and similar public relations efforts increase visibility and attract potential members.

October is also Membership Month. What better way to celebrate Pilot than by adding new members! There is nothing more effective than a personal invitation to attend a meeting or join Pilot. Too often, we assume someone would not be interested or maybe too busy. We need to ask and give everyone the opportunity to decide for him/herself. There is no doubt that each of us know someone to invite and more than likely there is someone waiting and hoping that you will invite them to join Pilot!

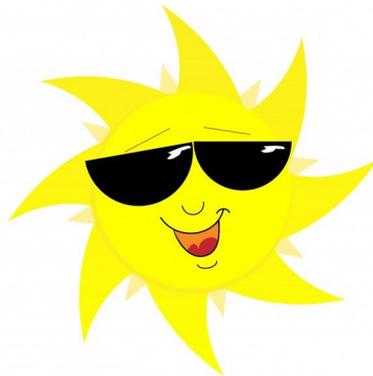

The race is on for new members. President Deb Hays announced a Membership Race for 2019-20. Clubs and Districts can win with the greatest percentage in growth or the greatest number of new members. One Pilot sponsoring the most new members will also win. Each winner will be given a certificate at the 2020 PI Convention in Atlantic City. Grand prizewinners will be given a non-transferable registration to the 2020-21 Annual Convention in Atlanta. It's a win-win for Pilot International! Don't be left behind at the starting line!

In Pilot Love and Friendship,

Lisa Patterson

I JOINED PILOT BECAUSE _____.

I challenge every Pilot to complete this and share it at your club meetings, This is also great to share why you love Pilot with visitors and prospective members! Also, send them to me as I would love to read them!! lmclaughlin98@gmail.com
